

JDPS Dragons

Music and Words by Stephen Eisenhauer

At JDPS we're dragons from now until the end.
And this is how we'll welcome you to the dragon's den:

On Monday you'll hear us roar.

At JDPS we're dragons from now until the end.
And this is how we'll welcome you to the dragon's den:

On Monday you'll hear us roar.
On Tuesday our wings will soar.

At JDPS we're dragons from now until the end.
And this is how we'll welcome you to the dragon's den:

On Monday you'll hear us roar.

On Tuesday our wings will soar.

On Wednesday our breath makes fire.

At JDPS we're dragons from now until the end.
And this is how we'll welcome you to the dragon's
den:

On Monday you'll hear us roar.

On Tuesday our wings will soar.

On Wednesday our breath makes fire.

On Thursday we sing like a choir.

At JDPS we're dragons from now until the end.
And this is how we'll welcome you to the dragon's den:

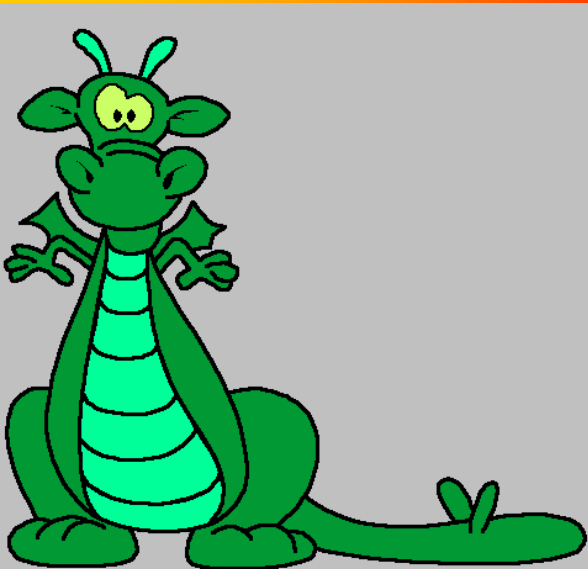

On Monday you'll hear us roar.

On Tuesday our wings will soar.

On Wednesday our breath makes fire.

On Thursday we sing like a choir.

On Friday our jaws will snap.

At JDPS we're dragons from now until the end.
And this is how we'll welcome you to the dragon's den:

On Monday you'll hear us roar.

On Tuesday our wings will soar.

On Wednesday our breath makes fire.

On Thursday we sing like a choir

On Friday our jaws will snap.

On Saturday we'll give a clap.

At JDPS we're dragons from now until the end.
And this is how we'll welcome you to the dragon's den:

On Monday you'll hear us roar.

On Tuesday our wings will soar.

On Wednesday our breath makes fire.

On Thursday we sing like a choir.

On Friday our jaws will snap.

On Saturday we'll give a clap.

On Sunday we take our rest,

But everyday we try our best at JDPS!

Go Dragons Go!
